

Sec^y. Customs,

No. $\frac{18452}{1905}$.

General Order $\frac{94}{1905}$.

CUSTOM HOUSE, LONDON,

29th December, 1905.

SUPERVISION OF THE WATERGUARD STAFF.

The Board have had under consideration certain questions as to the supervision of the Waterguard Staffs at Ports, other than London and Liverpool, at which Chief Preventive Officers have been appointed, and they now direct that Chief Preventive Officers at Ports where there is not an Inspector or Assistant Inspector of Waterguard are to be held directly responsible to the Collector for the general arrangements and efficiency of the Waterguard force serving under them.

By Order of the Board.

R. HENDERSON.