Sir,

The Board have approved, for the guidance of Waterguard Superintendents, a book of confidential directions which supersede the corresponding instructions at present contained in the "Directions to Waterguard Superintendents, Waterguard Surveyors and Chief Preventive Officers".

..... Copies of this book are forwarded herewith for the information and guidance of yourself and the Assistant Waterguard Superintendents in your Division, and receipt thereof should be acknowledged to Section 1, Secretaries' Office. The books which are to be kept under lock when not in use, are issued on a non-personal basis and are to be retained permanently in the Division for use by the present Superintendents and their successors.

A copy of this letter is enclosed in each book, for the information of the official concerned.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,

The Waterguard Superintendent,
London.
