

HM Waterguard - Web Site Newsletter - May 2011

In view of the reduced need for changes to the site since last Christmas, I have decided to issue Newsletters bi-monthly in future. So, barring any upsurge in new submissions, you can expect the next HM Waterguard - Web Site Newsletter in July.

New Pages Added ::

Since the last Waterguard Web Site Newsletter the following pages have received some attention:

Anecdotes-London Page :: additional section & text :: A new section for Barking Creek and an anecdote about being 'entertained' from Iain Scott-Shore.

Offices & Buildings-Coastguard Page :: additional images :: An image of the cottages at South Lancing - Sussex - and another image of the Birling Gap cottages - Eastbourne.

People-Colleagues - CVs (Q-T) Page :: additional text :: Keith Robinson's CV has been updated thanks to his daughter Julie Thomson, and Peter Rosterick's CV has been supplied by his daughter Susan Restorick-Banks.

Pictures-Cinema Page :: amended page & additional images :: The page has been redesigned and additional 'clips' have been included, courtesy of the British Pathe archive.

Recent Additions Page :: Has been updated.

Stationery & Stores Page :: additional image :: An embossed stamp for Newcastle on Tyne - c1915.

Stationery & Stores-Date Stamps - The Outdoor Service Page:: additional image :: A 1915 date stamp for Newcastle on Tyne.

The Work-Smuggling Page :: additional section, text & image :: A concealment of jewellery found in a 'cut-out' in a book in the crews library.

Uniform Page :: additional images :: A Gilt Portcullis with Kings Crown badge - pre 1953, a post 1952 APO/PO standard issue cap with an inner stretcher and a post 1952 manufactures label - APO/PO cap..
